

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Diane Lopez Wilson
(831) 205 -1822 / dd@xoxocti.com

October 27, 2011

TONY REDHOUSE: SOUND HEALER BRINGS THE SPIRIT OF NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE CELEBRATION TO THE ARIZONA STATE SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF AND BLIND

Tony Redhouse, of the Navajo nation, is a Native American sound healer, spiritual teacher, inspirational speaker, Eagle Hoop dancer and award winning recording artist who uses his voice and music to move communities, worldwide. He collaborates with Arizona State Schools for the Deaf and Blind in Tucson, AZ, on Thus. November 17, 2011 to celebrate Native American Heritage Month with the students, families and staff of the school, undoubtedly an inspirational event in the community.

A native resident of Tucson, Tony has been a longtime active member of the community bringing his multiple talents to bring a sense of balance and wellbeing in a number of environments. From his volunteer work with Hospice, Rehabilitation and meditation circles, Tony has inspired a sense of community, health and wellness that includes his music, Native American Yoga and dance performances. He has long been of service as a motivational speaker and jazz musician with many credits to his name, Please visit his website at:

<http://www.tonyredhouse.net>

Arizona State Schools for the Deaf and Blind provides quality educational services to students from pre-school through age 22. The School focuses on the unique educational needs of students with visual and hearing impairments. Students have the opportunity to reach their maximum potential through diverse experiences that enhance intellectual development, self-esteem, self-advocacy and independence. The school programs are specialized, student-centered, and focus on partnerships with families and the community to promote a foundation for life-long learning and personal success. School Contact: Karin (520) 770-3227

Interactive Celebration with Tony Redhouse Hoop Dance Performance, Motivational Talk and Music: Mr. Redhouse will perform a Hoop Dance that demonstrates the beauty of our Circle of Life connecting with all the Cycles of Life in the Universe to create Harmony. This is a unique story dance where Tony uses 30 Hoops to create designs that represent unity and wisdom. Through the traditions of his heritage, he aspires to motivate and inspire youth, families and the general public in celebration of Native American Heritage Month.

Mr. Redhouse is a categorical winner of the 2011 Native American Music Awards out of New York and is a past NAMA award recipient for both music and music video. His current accomplishment is his new album "Release, Transitions in Death and Life," inspired by his community work which will hit the music market in November of this year and will be available to the public.

DATE: Thursday, November 17, 2011

TIME: 12:00- 3:00 PM

EVENT: Native American Heritage Month Celebration

LOCATION: Berger Performing Arts Center at ASDB, 1200 W. Speedway Blvd, Tucson, AZ

ENTRANCE: Open to the Public

#####